Who It Is For

-  Offices with high-volume printing needs
-  Teams requiring scan-to-cloud capabilities
-  Users needing 70-page automatic document feeder
-  Businesses prioritizing wireless connectivity

Who It Is Not For

-  Small home offices with minimal printing
-  Users requiring color printing capabilities
-  Those without Amazon Alexa integration
-  Users needing compact, space-saving design

Trade Offs to Consider

- Higher cost compared to basic printers
- Requires Amazon account for toner replenishment
- Limited color printing options available
- Larger footprint than compact models

How It Compares

- Amazon Dash Replenishment simplifies toner management
- 70-page ADF outperforms standard 50-page feeders
- Wireless connectivity enables mobile printing
- Super high-yield toner reduces replacement frequency

Choose This If...

---

- ✓ Need high-speed black-and-white printing
- ✓ Require automatic duplex functionality
- ✓ Want wireless and wired connectivity options
- ✓ Use Amazon Dash Replenishment for toner

✗ Skip This If...

- ✗ Prioritize color printing capabilities
- ✗ Need compact, space-efficient design
- ✗ Don't use Amazon for toner replenishment
- ✗ Print volumes below 50 pages per minute
