Who It Is For

-  Home users printing documents and photos
-  Small businesses needing scan/copy/fax
-  Families with occasional printing needs
-  Remote workers requiring wireless access

Who It Is Not For

-  High-volume office printing
-  Users needing 11x17 paper support
-  Those prioritizing laser printer speed
-  Photographers requiring photo-grade prints

Trade Offs to Consider

-  Slower color print speed than laser printers
-  Higher cost for color printing compared to inkjets
-  Limited media size max at 8.5x14 inches
-  Requires internet for advanced features

How It Compares

- Better than basic printers with wireless
- Less capable than high-end multifunction
- More versatile than single-function printers
- Costlier than laser printers for color

Choose This If...

- ✓ Need wireless printing from mobile devices
- ✓ Want automatic two-sided printing
- ✓ Require color display for navigation
- ✓ Print occasional documents and photos

Skip This If...

- ✗ Need high-volume printing
- ✗ Require 11x17 paper support
- ✗ Prioritize laser-like speed
- ✗ Expect photo-quality output
