Who It Is For

---

-  Small businesses needing color printing
-  Home offices with wireless requirements
-  Users requiring USB 2.0 connectivity
-  Those needing automatic duplex printing

Who It Is Not For

-  Large offices needing high-volume printing
-  Users without USB port availability
-  Those prioritizing higher print resolution

Trade Offs to Consider

---

-  Lower resolution than premium laser printers
-  No mobile app for direct printing
-  Limited to 250-sheet input capacity

How It Compares

---

-  Better than basic color printers for multifunction use
-  Similar to mid-tier models in wireless capabilities
-  Less robust than enterprise-grade laser printers

Choose This If...

- ✓ Need color printing and scanning in one device
- ✓ Require wireless connectivity for remote access
- ✓ Value USB 2.0 port for direct connections

✗ Skip This If...

- ✗ Need higher print volume than 250 sheets
- ✗ Prioritize 1200 dpi color resolution
- ✗ Require mobile app integration for printing
