-  Remote workers needing wireless printing

Who It Is Not For

-  Users with low monthly print volume
-  Those needing ultra-fast high-volume printing
-  Users without stable Wi-Fi connectivity
-  Those preferring single-function printers

Trade Offs to Consider

-  Higher upfront cost vs long-term ink savings
-  Refill system complexity vs potential mess
-  Limited media size options vs versatility
-  Slower print speed vs cost efficiency
-  AI features vs simpler user experience
-  Bulkier design vs compact portability

How It Compares

- Better ink savings than HP Smart Tank 6000
- More versatile than Epson EcoTank L3156
- Slower than Canon PIXMA TR8520
- Fewer features than multifunction laser printers
- More durable than budget inkjet printers
- Higher upfront cost than basic all-in-ones

Choose This If...

- ✓ You need high-volume color printing
- ✓ You want wireless and AI features
